The volume of work in all cases, when possible, is determined according to the original text. In other cases, it will be according to the translated version with the exception of Eastern languages (Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Hebrew and etc.). The volume of work of the latter is always determined according to the Russian text, regardless of the translated language.

Discount system:

- 100 pages - 3%
- 500 pages - 5%
- 1000 pages – 10%

Discounts will vary depending on the frequency of orders and the volume of work.

3 years warranty period. Within the warranty period we provide services of editing and translation of additional fragments. In the case that proofreading of the whole text is not required you will pay only for the translation of the additional fragment.

Maximum translation volume - 50 pages per day.

Standard translation rate by one translator (European languages) is 8-15 pages per day.

If you need an urgent translation of a large volume of work we will mobilize a group of translators to work on the project, which substantially increases the translation rate.

Translation completed by 4 or more translators may be of a lesser quality due to the difference between their styles of translation. In such cases the editor is often incapable of perfectly adjusting the text.

Your order can be placed from any part of the world.

Simply send us your work indicating the language of your required translation to as well as deadlines, chosen tariff and the method of payment.

Within 15 minutes you will receive detailed info on pricing and your order will be immediately processed by one of our specialists.
